

WE ARE IPSC ...ARE YOU READY?

WE ARE IPSC. WELCOME ALL!

Respected colleagues and friends,

It is with great pleasure and pride that I present to you the International Practical Shooting Confederation (IPSC), the worldwide governing body for the exciting and dynamic sport of Practical Shooting.

Since 1976 we have been developing this thrilling and challenging sport... what started with a group of friends has now grown into an international discipline with almost a quarter million active members across 6 continents... and we are just getting started!

I cordially invite you to know more about Practical Shooting and to join us in having the time of your life... are you ready?

VITALY KRYUCHIN
IPSC President

WHAT IS PRACTICAL SHOOTING?

Practical Shooting is dynamic, challenging, and one of the fastest growing shooting sports in the world today.

Courses of Fire utilize many aspects not found in the more traditional shooting disciplines such as shooting on the move, swinging targets, and the freedom for the athlete to solve the shooting challenges presented in the Courses of Fire.

What makes Practical Shooting unique?

The appeal of the sport lies in the diversity of the Courses of Fire available to the athlete. By offering different Courses of Fire rather than set types, Practical Shooting continues to challenge the competitor and to improve his skills.

There are continually new demands to challenge shooting enthusiasts.

WHAT IS IPSC?

The International Practical Shooting Confederation (IPSC) recognizes all the shooting disciplines - Handgun, Rifle, Shotgun, and Action Air (Air pistols).

In IPSC stages, the results are points scored on targets divided by the time needed to complete a stage. A competitor must be the most accurate and fastest to win! Therefore, the competitions appear very exciting for athletes and interesting for spectators!

IPSC Motto

The Latin words Diligentia, Vis, Celeritas (DVC) meaning accuracy, power, and speed are IPSC's motto and form the foundation for competition. IPSC also emphasizes procedures for Safe Gun handling and strict adherence to the rules governing the sport.

OUR HISTORY

In the October 1976 issue of Guns & Ammo magazine, Rick Miller wrote: “Our first step, electing a president, proved to be rather easy. Someone nominated Jeff Cooper, and he was unanimously voted into office.” The standardization of a practical target, an acceptable method of power factoring and the definition of practical holsters were the first issues in the 1976 agenda.

For IPSC, the auspicious first step was taken four decades ago by Dick Thomas and Frankin Brown. They jointly convened the Columbia International Combat Pistol Conference (later abbreviated as Columbia Conference) held in Columbia, Missouri, USA beginning 24 May 1976.

Practical Shooting stalwarts who attended from the USA included famous names such as Jeff Cooper, Ray Chapman, Rick Miller, Ken Hackathorn, Thell Reed, Bert Estes, Ron Lerch, Bruce Nelson, Jim Cirillo and Mike Harries.

GUN SAFETY

Safety and Responsibility

To get a start in IPSC shooting all that is required is a reliable firearm, eye and ear protection and a large dose of enthusiasm.

Hearing and Eye Protection - competitors and spectators must wear hearing and eye protection at all times when they are attending IPSC competitions. Everyone, not just officials, needs to be alert to remind anyone that they must have hearing and eye protection on before shooting begins.

At IPSC, responsible and safe gun handling is the most important qualification any athlete must possess... fun and camaraderie surely follows!

OUR MEMBERS

What are IPSC Regions?

The Regions are sports organisations representing and developing practical shooting in a given country. All IPSC athlete become members of the IPSC by joining their affiliated Region.

What kind of people compete in IPSC matches?

As in any other popular sport, a wide variety of people enjoy IPSC shooting. Our membership spans almost every occupation, from craftsmen to executives. We are also fortunate to have many women and families involved in our shooting programs. It is not unusual to find husbands and wives, and families participating in IPSC activities. All of the people at our competitions are strong believers in safety and safe gun handling as well as good sportsmanship.

COMPETITIONS

Is there a place in IPSC for beginners?

Absolutely! All of those currently competing were once at the beginner stage. By becoming active in matches hosted by an IPSC club you will have the advantage of qualified range officials and courteous range staff.

You will normally find IPSC athletes are pleased to give a helping hand in getting you started.

INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION

IPSC is a proud member of two of the most recognizable international sport development organizations, dedicated to the promotion of various disciplines and their athletes.

AIMS

The Alliance of Independent recognised Members of Sport (AIMS) was found in 2009 by the non- IOC recognised members of GAISF family and is one of the five umbrella bodies alongside ARISF, ASOIF and AIOWF and the associate members.

AIMS is recognised by the International Olympic committee and has signed a Memorandum of Understanding between the International Olympic Committee (IOC) and AIMS in Lausanne. By granting recognition to AIMS, the IOC acknowledges the role of AIMS and its valuable contribution to support the Olympic Movement in the achievement of its missions and goals; in the fields of the development of sport, promotion of sport in support of athletes.

WHAT IS IROA?

DINO EVANGELINOS

IROA President

The International Range Officer Association (IROA) was created to establish a structure for the accreditation, recognition and maintenance of match officials. IROA certifies that IPSC Range Officers (Referees) are the best trained, the best qualified and best prepared to ensure a uniform worldwide standard for all competitions.

MEMBERSHIP

To join the ranks of IROA, national match officials must exhibit a high level of competence, attitude and a personal commitment to the safety and quality of IPSC matches.

MEMBERSHIP

IROA is responsible for handling the preparation, development, maintenance and distribution of training materials which reflect the current and future requirements of IPSC matches.

WHAT IS MISIA?

The Main International Shooting Instructors Association (MISIA) was created to establish an international structure for the accreditation, recognition and maintenance of shooting Instructors and Trainers.

It ensures that IPSC Instructors are the best trained and qualified to implement a uniform worldwide standard for training IPSC sports athletes.

MISIA Instructors and Trainers are the ambassadors who bring our Culture of Safe Gun handling to the attention of the whole shooting world.

VISION

The highly skilled and safest IPSC Shooting sport is the basis of the Firearm Handling Culture.

MISSION

To promote, maintain and improve a worldwide standard of the safety training of the athletes in the sport of Practical Shooting.

GOALS

- To establish the accreditation, recognition and maintenance of MISIA Instructors.
- To develop and standardize a MISIA curriculum.
- To set a unified approach to MISIA training.
- To promote and enhance both the quality and efficiency of training.
- To certify MISIA Officials in every IPSC Region.
- To promote gender equality and equity in the sport.
- To assist IPSC developing and maintaining a worldwide youth program.

MISIA

MISIA offers all kinds of professional educational programs from initial introductory training for beginners for the safe use and handling of firearms (International Firearms Safety Standard MISIA / IPSC Program), to specific high-performance work for competitors and athletes.
